- Open Command prompt and write following command

git –version

- If git is installed, you can see following line git version 2.xx.x.windows.x

- If git is not installed, download from using following link https://git-scm.com/install/

- IN VS CODE > OPEN TERAMINAL > WRITE FOLWWING COMMANDS SETP BY STEP

git init

git add .

git config --global user.name "Brinda" git config --global user.email brindapatel.cse@charusat.ac.in git commit -m "Initial StudentHub project setup"

- On the GitHub repository page, copy the repository URL(from browser):

https://github.com/brindapankajbhaipatel/studentHUBPortal

- on VS code terminal

git remote add origin https://github.com/brindapankajbhaipatel/studentHUBPortal

- Push Project to GitHub:

git branch -M main

- Push the project:

git push -u origin main

- Open your GitHub repository in your browser-refresh it
- Whenever you complete a new practical, write following commands in VS code terminal
  git add .
  git commit -m "Completed Practical 2" git push